Montgomery County Office of the Inspector General Issues Progress Report

Rockville, Maryland – Montgomery County Maryland Inspector General Megan Davey Limarzi announced today the release of the Office of the Inspector General's (OIG) mid-year status report on progress made to address recommendations issued by the OIG from January 1, 2024 to March 1, 2025. The report was issued in support of the OIG's mission to increase accountability and transparency in county-funded programs and operations.

The report details the status of the 48 recommendations which were the result of 12 audits, reviews, and investigations that yielded opportunities for improvement within the scope of the report. The report highlights the positive actions taken by the affected entities including the fact that 19 of the 48 recommendations have been addressed, and 4 of the 12 engagement (25%) have been closed outright.

Additionally, the information detailed in the report points to the OIG's continued impact on improving County programs and operations. It also documents the commitment of County leaders and their teams to improving the efficiency and effectiveness of County government and Montgomery County Public Schools.
